

The Hanover Privacy Disclosure Statements

At The Hanover Insurance Group, we value and are committed to protecting your privacy. Whether you are a customer, claimant, agent, investor, employee, business partner or simply a visitor to our website, we value your personal information, and you should know that your personal information is always treated responsibly. Our promise to you is to protect the personal and confidential information you entrust to us.

Please refer to the following privacy policies to learn more about how The Hanover is committed to protecting your personal, non-public information:

- Online Privacy Statement
- Customer Privacy Policy Disclosure

For New York Residents:

- Notice of Protections for Victims of Domestic Violence under §2612 of the New York Insurance Law

For California Residents:

- Privacy policy for California residents
- Privacy notice at collection for California residents
- Privacy notice at collection for personnel and job applicants
- California consumer request form